Reciprocal Teaching

Directions: You will assume the responsibility for helping your group to use one of four reading strategies to discuss the assigned reading: summarizing, questioning, predicting, and connecting. As you read, take notes based on your assigned strategy and be prepared to lead a discussion for your role in your group.

Summarizing	Questioning	Predicting	Clarifying
Beyond retelling what happens in the reading, identify what you think are the three most important events/details from the reading and explain why they are important and how they are connected.	Pose at least three questions about the reading; these could include questions that address confusing parts of the reading, or thought questions that the reading makes you wonder about.	Identify at least three text-related predictions; these predictions should be based on new developments in the reading and your predictions should help the group to anticipate what will happen next.	Make at least three clarifications; these are parts that you found confusing and you needed to clarify before moving on. Be prepared to explain these clarifications to your group.
