

PRE/POST-ASSESSMENT - ANIMAL ADAPTATIONS

Please circle "A" if you agree with the statement about animal adaptations. Please circle "D" if you disagree. Please complete the LEFT side ONLY at this time.

PRE	ANIMAL ADAPTATION STATEMENTS	POST
A D	1. To "adapt" means to stay the same.	A D
A D	2. An animal's "habitat" is the food it eats.	A D
A D	3. There are two types of animal adaptations: body changes and the way the animal acts in order to survive.	A D
A D	4. Some animals have thick fur to keep them warm in the winter.	A D
A D	5. Some animals have large eyes or "see" with their ears to survive during the day.	A D
A D	6. Camels store water in their humps to help survive in the desert.	A D
A D	7. "Camouflage" is the act of hiding one's identity by modifying one's appearance.	A D
A D	8. The polar bear has oily fur so that they can shake off any ice that forms during swimming.	A D
A D	9. "Endangered" means in danger of going extinct or no longer existing.	A D
A D	10. Habitat loss is one of the main reasons an animal becomes endangered.	A D
A D	11. Luckily, there are no endangered animals in Michigan.	A D
A D	12. A "predator" is an animal that is hunted or caught for food.	A D
A D	13. Camouflage is the only way animals fool their predators.	A D
A D	14. An octopus has no bones and can squeeze through a spot as little as 1 inch to escape predators.	A D
A D	15. Animals always find a way to adapt to their changing surroundings.	A D