

Learning Contract

I, Birgul Yiacoup, a student in Dr. Smirnova's ED 5670 Literacy & Technology class, have attentively read the syllabus. I agree to do the following:

1. I understand that there is an intellectual standard in this course and I am responsible to monitor my progress to keep up with the pace of the classroom.
2. I understand that I am responsible to actively participate in group discussions and come up with challenging ideas to enhance learning.
3. I understand that there is an expected standard provided by Dr. Smirnova in the syllabus for each written assignment and I am aware to be responsible to reflect them in my each task.
4. I understand that some of the assignments are my responses within the Moodle Discussion Forum and the course blog, and I am aware that I am responsible to find out what is expected from me.
5. I understand that completing all the assignments correctly will get me a B grade; Therefore, I am aware that I have to submit High Achievers Challenge Assignments (HA) to obtain an "A" grade.
6. I understand that I need to visit Web Moodle daily in order to follow new information added to the course site and I am responsible to spend enough time on resources provided by Dr. Smirnova.
7. I understand and agree to follow the rules of Netiquette while I am in a discussion with my peers or in my written assignments posted in the internet.
8. I understand that I have to demonstrate superior efforts in my ability in order to be a productive contributor to my group and to the class.
9. I understand that I am expected to be an independent learner and I take the challenge to improve my learning skills.
10. I understand that this course requires a lot of work and I take the responsibility to put the superior effort of my ability to achieve my highest accomplishment.
