

Name: Birgul Yiacoup

Date: 07/14/2008

Middle School Spanish Classroom

Website Evaluation Form

	3	2	1
Appearance	The appearance of the website grasps the attention and it is appealing. Links, texts and images are well organized.	The images of the website grasp the attention and they are appealing. However, they are not well organized.	The appearance is not appealing. Links, texts and images are not well organized.
Navigation	Navigation was very easy and all links worked properly.	Navigation was easy, but not all links were functioning well.	Navigation was difficult. It took a long time to open pages and connect to links.
Content	The website provides a lot of information that are very useful and accurate.	The website includes a lot of information but not all of them are related to the topic.	The website doesn't have so much information. The information provided doesn't seem accurate.
Handy	The website has very practical information which is handy to use for multiple projects.	The website has good information but it is not practical to use it.	The website doesn't have practical information that can be used in projects.
Originator	The originator of the website is clearly stated and the contact information is provided.	The originators name is provided but there is no contact information.	It is not clear who the originator is and how can be reached.
Reliable	The information provided is very reliable and updated.	The information provided is reliable but no updates available.	The information provided is not reliable and no date when was prepared.

Handy section was not planned, however anchor is the acronym I wanted to use in order to make an effect of an "anchor" that will keep students attention. I also learned that it is not an easy task to create acronyms.