

Three +'s and a Wish I made...

Andrew:

+good loud voice

+Helpful links

+made your topic sound very interesting wish: Your hands were out of your pockets

Amy:

+Good way to start by asking question

+good job not reading off the screen

+link to example of lesson

wish: mine is as good as yours

Colleen:

+great pictures

+steps are nice and clear

+Loud voice

wish: Spoke slower and didnt sit

Laura:

+Good starting question

+useful sites

+good job linking wish: talk louder and didnt read off paper as much.

Group investigation: Amanda, Alissa, Jessie, Mark & Olga

+– liked how you related your findings to the jigsaw

+– Like how the whole class was involved with group work

+– I liked how you all walked around to each group and helped.

Wish– your presentation went a little slower

Sam, Andrew, Dominique & Alex

+–Great hands on activities

+–Presented information very well

+--Got the whole class involved

Wish-- that you had our attention a little better

Josselyn, Laura, Catie, Lenna

+--getting attention of the class

+--power point was good and informative

+-- good group work

Wish-- i wish that as a group you were a little more organized when Breaking us into group

My classmates 3 +'s and a wish given to me!

Becky,

What a nice job you did presenting your anticipatory set you did a great job grabbing our attention by clapping your hands, you were very loud and enthusiastic and I really enjoyed the idea of teaching about the seasons! I do wish you had everything set up before you started, other than that you did and excellent job!

Leigh

Group 5: Leena, Catie, Mark, Rebecca, Gabriela

+ Well organized presentation

+ Very loud and clear

+ Liked how you used think/pair/share

I wish that I could have heard the clip! (great addition to the presentation)

